

Plant Aphrodisiacs

Painting by John William Waterhouse, Hylas and the Nymphs (1896).

Wikipedia articles:

Catuaba barks from Brazilian trees including Trichilia catigua and Erythroxylum vacciniifolium

Google Images: Trichilia catigua; Erythroxylum vacciniifolium

Epimedium and Epimedium grandiflorum Horny Goat Weed

Google Images: Epimedium grandiflorum

Eurycoma longifolia Tongkat Ali/Pasak Bumi

Google Images: Eurycoma longifolia

Lepidium meyenii Maca

Google Images: Lepidium meyenii

Mucuna pruriens Velvet Bean

Google Images: Mucuna pruriens

Polygonum multiflorum Fo-Ti/He shou wu

Google Images: Polygonum multiflorum

Ptychopetalum Muira Puama

Google Images: Ptychopetalum

Tribulus terrestris Gokshura

Google Images: Tribulus terrestris

Turnera diffusa Damiana

Google Images: Turnera diffusa

Ling zhi or Reishi mushrooms

Google Images: Reishi mushrooms

Cordyceps

Google Images: Cordyceps

Also available at Internet Archive:

Plant Hallucinogens: Sacred Elements of Native Societies,
by Richard Evans Schultes and Elmer W. Smith.

Prepared by Robert Bedrosian

This material is presented solely for non-commercial educational/research purposes